A Family Newspaper---Devoted to Education, Agriculture, Commerce, Markets, General Intelligence, Foreign and Domestic News.

VOL. 5.—NO. 5.1

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA, THURSDY, APRIL 24, 1856.

A Remarkable Incident at Sea.

WHOLE NO. 213.

THE BANNER IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING (Up stairs, in the Old Plymouth Hotel,) BY WM. J. BURNS.

At the end of six months, - - - - - 200 The doctor's ideas were liberal, much If delayed until the end of the year, 250 A failure to order a discontinuance at the expitation of the time subscribed for, will be considered a new engagement, and the paper even tenor of his way, and disregarded the ITNo paper will be liscontinued untilall arrayrages are paid, unless at the option of the manifested a remarkable talent for music Trhe above terms will be strictly ad

ADVERTISING.

TEN LINES OR LESS MAKE A SQUARE.) One square three insertions or less $1.00. Buch additional insertion . . . 25c. Business Cards inserted one year $5,00. Legal advertisements must be cash in advance or accepted security. Advertisements, time not marked. will be inserted till forbidden and charged at the above rates.

DIRECTORY.

MARSHALL COUNTY DEMOCRAT, To Man Donald and H. B. Dickson propri's, CHARLES PALMER, Dealer in Dry Goods, Boots & Shoes, Hardware, Queensware, Groceries, and Hats & Caps.

Da. J. W. BENNETT'S office at his residence three doors north of Edwards' liotel, on Michigan street.

BROOKE & EVANS, Dealers in Dry Goods O Groceries, Crockery and Ready made Clothing; corner Laporte & Mich. streets. . Goods, Boots & Shoes, Ready made it true, Dictor? Clothing, Hardware & Cutlery.

DR. T. A. LEMON, Practicing Physician, and dealer in Drugs & Medicines, Oils, Paints & Groceries, east side Michigan street.

VINEDGE. Dealer in Foreign and Do-. mestic Groceries and Provisions, east side Michigan street.

L. PIATT, Chair & Cabinet maker, north room of the old Plymouth Hotel.

HASELTON, Manufacturer and dealer . in Boots & Shoes, and Shoe Findings, west side Michigan street.

JOSEPH POTTER Saddle and Harness hear it.

. Goods Groceries, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, Crockery &c.; in the Brick Store.

ROBERT RUSK, Dealer in Family Groce- The foll ries, Provisions and Tinware. Bakery same source. attached, east side Michigan street.

prietor, up stairs in Rusk's building. RIMPLER, Merchant Tailor, and Dealing Goods, in Rusk's building.

& Shoes, Ready made Clothing &c. B. PERSHING Wholesale and Retail dealer in Drugs Medicines, Oils, Points, the following: Glass & Glassware, Groceries, & ginger wine.

in Stoves-sign of Tin shop & Stove.

diana. Lands for sale cheap. W. SMITH, Justice of the peace, will attend to business in the Circuit and Com. Pleas courts. Over the Post office. .

I and Surgeon. Office at his residence on now I would like to tuttle." he east side of Michigan street. e) ment of Dry Gools, Groceries, Vegetables and Meats of all kinds. Cor. Gano & Mich. sts. DR. J. D. GRAY. Eclectic Physician, will and tuttle, what do they put up a sign doors north of C. H. Reeve's residence.

TALLIOTT & Co. Wagon, Carriage & Plow south end of the Bridge, Michigan street.

A. JOSEPH. Cabinet Maker and Un-A. dertaker, South Plymouth.

DR. CHAS. WEST, Eclectic Physician, Office at his residence. east side Michi-

FAILOR, Cabinet Maker and underta-As ker, corner Center & Washington sts.

ton streets.

. Shop on Washington street, east of Michigan street.

Shop south east of Edwards' Hotel. MERICAN HOUSE, G. P. Cherry & Son

A proprietors, South Plymouth. BALDWIN, manufactures and keeps ahead.' A. on hand custom made Boots & Shoes; east side Michigan street. JOHN SMITH. Manufacturer of Fine Custom made Boots. Shop next door north of the Brick Store.

Bouth Plymouth.

J. E. ARMSTRONG, attends to all calls in his line of Daguerreotyping, at his residence north of Edwards' Hotel.

M. H. PECHER & CO., Dealers in Family Groceries, Frovisions, Confectionaries

In the Market. delivered at the office. Blanks all kinds, neatly printed, andfor vale at " Banner Office.

The following humorous sketch is from the Editor's Drawer of Harper's Maga-

A Fiddle or a Violin?

Half a century ago or less, the pious, but sometimes facetious Dr. Pond, dwelt in the quiet and out-of-the-way village of - - - $150 A ----, in the State of 'steady habits.' more so than many of his congregation approved; nevertheless, he kept on the prejudices of some of his people. He had a son named Enoch, who at an early age which the father cherished and cultivated with care. In the same vilinge, resided an antiquated maiden lady, who, having no cares of her own to occupy her time and attention, magnanimously devoted herself to those of her neighbors. One morning she called at the doctor's, and requested to see him. When he entered the room where she was seated, he perceived at a glance that something was amiss, and before he had time to extend to her the usual 'How-d'ye do.' she began:

'I should think, Doctor Pond, that a man of your age and profession might have had something better to do, when you were in New London last week than to buy Enoch a fiddle; all the people are ashamed that our minister shou'd buy his son a fiddle. A fiddle! O'r, dear! what is the world coming to when ministers will do such things!" 'Who told you I had bought Enoch s fidddle?' inquired the Doctor.

'Who told me! Why, everybody says so, and some people have heard him play BROWNLEE & CO. Dealers in Dry on it as they passed the door. But aint

'I bought Enoch a violin when I went to New London.'

'A violin! what's :hat?' 'Did you never see one?' 'Never.'

'Enoch,' said the Doctor, stepping to the door, bring your violin here. Enoch obeyed the command, but no . and Undertaker. Furniture room in sooner had he entered with his instrument, than the lady exclaimed! 'La! now, there; why it is a fiddle!' 'Do not judge rashly,' said the Doctor. giving his son a wink; 'wait until you manufacturer, corner Laporte and Center Taking the hint, Enoch played Old Hundred. The lady was completely mys-S. CLEAVELAND Wholesale and re- tified; it looked like a fiddle, but then T. tail dealer in Dry Goods. Hardware and who had ever heard Old Hundred played Groceries, new building, north side Laporte st. on a fiddle! It could not be, So, rising H. OGLESBEE & Co. Dealers in Dry to depart, she exclaimed. 'I am glad I came in to satisfy myself. La! me; just to think how people will lie!"

-The following, also, comes from the He is perhaps a foolish man who can-TCE CREAM SALOON, M. H. Tibbits pro- not afford to laugh at a grotesque or foolish thing. Sometimes one feels almost ashamed to be amused by a trifle which er in Clothing and all kinds of Furnish- bears upon its face an air of inauthentic ity; but following this rule, who would WESTERVELT & HEWITT. Dealers in ever have enjoyed Gulliver's Travels-a work so often quoted in defense of geo ever have enjoyed Gulliver's Travels-a graphical statements and psychological developments? Let such doubters skip

'A solemn-looking fellow, with a cer-DROWN & BAXTER Manufacturers of Tin tain air of dry humor about the corners Sheet Iron and Copperware, and dealers of his rather sanctimonious mouth, stepped quietly, one day, into a tailoring es C. H. REEVE, Atty. at Law. Collections tablishment of 'Call and Tuttle,' Boston. and quietly remarked to the clerk in at-

. I want to tuttle.'

"What do you mean, Sir?" "Well, I want to TUTTLE: noticed the R. SAW'L. HIGGINBOTHAM, Physician invitation over your door, so I called; and

'He was ordered to leave the establish-TOHN COUGLE, Keeps a general assort- ment, which he did with a look of angry wonder, grumbling to himself. "If they don't want strangers to call

Good NATURE - Good nature redeems peace in his conscience, sanctifying grace in that vicinity. The animal was known was in substance as follows: Manufacturers, at their new stand at the many faults. More than beauty, wealth, in his sonl, true humility in his heart, Volo and is considered the hest native for sister level and is considered the hest native for sister level and is considered the hest native for sister level and to have the whole put in complete running order at the earliest possible power, genius, it causes men and women real divinity in his breast, the Redeem-DR. R. BROWN. Physician and Surgeon, to be loved. If there are no shining will promptly attend to all calls in his qualities whatever in the character, even under his feet, and a crown of glory over bad haffed for very tendence. It is a state of the conditions of profession. Office at his residence, south Plym. should there be considerable intellectual his head. Happy is the life of such a had baffled for years repeated attempts deficiency, yet if a good tempr beams person; in order to gain which, pray fer. to capture him although every method brightly on the countenence, we ask for vently, believe firmly, wait patiently, that ingenuity could devise and men exnothing more. We pause not, we do not live holy, die daily, watch your heart, ecute was tried years ago. question nor hesitate, but surrender at guide your senses, redeem your time, love once to the fascinations of the good and Christ and hope for glory. A true genhonest soul, that has set upon its face the tleman is God's servant, the world's masseal of this admirable quality.

A gentleman on board a steamboal with his rest, and Happiness his reward .--POWARDS' HOTEL, Wm. C. Edwards Pro- A gentleman on board a steamboal with his rest, and Happiness his reward .-- his family, on being asked by his children, God is his father, the Church is his moth-'what made the boat go,' gave them the er, the Saints are his brethren, and he is D C. TURNER, House Carpenter & Joiner following very lucid description of the a friend to all that need him. Heaven his Trotting he could run around some horses fitting coat like the New York surtout machinery and its principles: 'You see, inheritance, Religion his mistress, Lovalmy dears, this thingumbob here goes down to and Justice his two ladies of honor, K. BRIGGS, Horse Shoeing and through the hole and fastens on the jig. Devotion his chaplain, Chastity his cham-Blacksmithing of all kinds done to order. maree; and that connects with the-crin- berlain, Sobriety his butler, Temperance kum crankum, and then that man, he's his cook, Hospitality his housekeeper, the engineer, you know, kind o' stirs up Providence his steward, Charity his treasthe-what do call it with his long poker, urer, Piety the mistress of the house, and and they all shove along and the boat goes Discretion his porter to let in and out as

The servant of a Prussian officer once met a crony who inquired of him how he got along with his fiery master. 'Oh, excellently!' answered the servan!;

'we live on friendly terms; every morning JAMES & M. ELLIOTT Turners. Chair Ma- we live on Iriently terms; every marning kers, and Sign Painters, Michigan street, we best each other's coats; and the only difference is, he takes his off to be beat en, and I keep mine on.'

'Would you like to subscribe for Dickens' Household Words? asked a magazine ngent. 'Household Words have played the Dickens with me long enough,' was the feeling reply.

A colored clergyman in Allany, reday afternoon.

Transference of Vitality. ness for sleeping with children-should ings and losses that have recently occurrepose in the same bed nor in the same of the escape of the ship Wisconsin, Capapartment with the emaciated or the aged, tain Scott, from Havre to this port, from for the transference of vitality from the destruction by lightning and the unusual voung to the old is not a nursery tale, phenomenon attending it, will be read but a serious, and too often a fatal fact. with interest: Children who are habitually placed in | The ship's position was lat. 37, 30 N. contact with the aged, however vigorous lon. 70, 40 W. Temperature of water, them, become wan, sickly, contract dis- weather dark and lowering with sharp advanced life, and if the contact is con- under double reefed topsails, foresail and Their flesh and positive magnetism is with heavy sleet. At 2.30 a m, while thus absorbed by negative or non-magnet. shortening sail, an immense ball of fire ic persons, to the benefit of the latter and struck the main-royal mast-head, and the injury of the former. The life of the then fell on the main hatch, where it exat the expense of the existence of the deck with fire and sparks, with continued following account: young. Many of the children who die explosions of the particles like detonating and is well known to every unprejudiced report and great commotion. about four or five years of age. He sp day and night, from N. W. by N. The death. She fought with her piece like a were killed they had stopped and assisted of firsh and strength, and of the energy which congrated as soon as it rose, and bravery, presented her to Washington, posed to have been sober, but must cer- a mistaken me for an old hoss. of the functions-what his mother very apt- was driven furiously over the ship, ex. who immediately promitted her to a ser- tainly have been very much frightened or that he had been a very robust and ple- for a time, but not seriously injured .- she fired the last gun when the Americans evening, and on Sunday were decently thoric child, up to his third year, when The mate was blinded by it, and proba- were driven from Fort Montgomery. buried in the graveyard by Mr. Pawling, ran off the track near Patterson during his grandmother, a very aged person, took bly will not recover the sight of both At the close of the revolution, Molly one of the township trustees. directed him to sleep apart from the aged The fore top sail was blown out of the honors. parent, and prescribed gentle tonics, bell-rope; and the royal mast head searchange of air, etc. The recovery was ed as it were with a red hot iron, being rapid. But it is not in children only all the damage the ship received, which, that debility is induced by this mode of to say the least, was very providential. abstracting vital power. Young females married to very old men suffer in a similar manner, although seldom to so great an extent, and instances have come to my knowledge where they have suspected the themselves, who consider the indulgence favorable to longevity, and thereby illustrate the selfishness which in some peraged persons .-- Life Illustrated.

The Happy Man.

called the robe of Christ's Righteousness.

He often walks in the valley of Selfabasement, and sometimes climbs the mountain of Spiritualmindedness He breakfasts every morning upon the Spiritual Prayer, and sups every evening up world knows not of, and his drink is of the sincere milk of the World. Thus happy he lives and happy he dies. Hapov is he that has Gospel-submission in ter, and his own man. Virtue is his business. Study his recreation, Contentment wo words, he is a man and a Christian.

master of the family.

any laid up at home," cause of this debilitated state. These of a passenger locomotive on the Roches- children, who have been attending school to be deranged. Mr. W., it seems from tender, and carries its engineer on its facts are often well known to the aged ter and Niagara Falls Road, saved a train and were at school last Wednesday when the facts elicited from the children. (very back, or rather on its side, near the for-does jobs of Self denial. He wears the a full head of steam. The engine leaped supposition as to the cause is this. plain barb of Humanity, and has a better and snapped the couplings of the first A few weeks ago, Mrs. Rodgers who The affair is yet mysterious, and we garb to put on when he goes to Court, car, plunged down the bank and overturn was a member of the Methodist Church wait further development before stating body entirely covered with leaves by the ed -- the whole train passed in safety upon in Virginia, presented her letter to the anything additional. the rails, and was stopped by the breaks church here and at the time partook of -its savior, severely wounded, but not the sacrament. Since that time she had

N. Y. Courier of Enquirer.

Bresence of Mind.

The Albany Evening Journal says:

on the same; he has meat to eat that the gers whom his devotion had saved,

The Prairie Chief.'

More than forty horsemen, mounted on the very flower of the ranches, pursued him on the second day, when he proved as fresh as the on first; and never, until last captured, even when hottest pursed. per says: was he seen to break into a gallop .-

instant and escaped. is most fit. Thus is his whole family made up of virtues, and he as the true He is necessitated to take the world in by the way is to glorify the name of God. and do good to mankind. Take him in A 'hard nut' was asked the other day if he had anything stored up in Heaven. · Sartain, sartain," he replied, "I reckon they must be laid up there if anywhere, for I'm darned sure I hain't got run (or trot rather) the entire day with- the ladies.

Parents and aged persons-although Among the startling incidents with close, when closely pursued, he broke into these latter exhibit a remarkable fond- which the papers are filled, of the suffer. a gallop. It is estimated, by those who borers were killed at the Roilroad bridge be careful not to permit'young persons to red on the ocean, the following account from 160 to 170 miles. He is a gray Wabash. They were discovered on the about fourteen hands high, and is believed gravel train, who immediately gave the to be about fourteen years of age, and is, alarm and commenced ringing the bell.

withall very fierce. -The Carlisle Democrat notices the his view of the track, he was unable to before such a disposition was made of 60 deg, air 28 deg. Fahrenheit. The death in that place, on Thursday of last see that the men were on the bridge, and week, of Sergeant John L. Hays, an old inasmuch as they did not get off immedieases which properly belong to persons in lightning, and barometer falling fast; ship resident of Carlisle, and a soldier in the ately he felt no uneasiness, and supposed war of 1812: Sergent Hays was born on that they would step off the track when tinued, die from pure vital exhaustion .- jib. At 2 a m commenced biowing hard, the day of the battle of Lexington, and the cars came nearer to them. aged may be prolonged by this means- ploded with tremendous force, filling the ly, in his "Life of Washington," gave the rocky bed of the stream, and was almost observer. I have on several occasions There were several men furling the jib heard the officers in command order the Stone & Wells. met with the counterpart of the following at the time, and the concussion was so gun to be taken to the rear. She immedi. They started to go to Mr. Fisher's in case; I was, a few years age, consulted great that it lifted them nearly clear of ately ran forward, and seized the rammer, the afternoon. About three quarters of about a pale, sickly, and thin boy, of the bottom. The tornado lasted all next declaring that she would avenge his a mile this side of the place where they peared to have no specific silment, but air very cold and water 79 deg., causing here to the last. The next morning Mr. William Collins to remove a stump ly termed a gradual blight. After inquiry cluding the very light of day. One of geant, and afterward put her name on the they could surely have avoided the acciinto the history of the case, it came out the crew was knocked down and stunned half-pay list for life, Previous to this, dent. They were brought to town in the

him to sleep with her; that he soon after- eyes. Had it not been for the ice, sleet Pitcher took her residence in Carlisle, ward lost his good looks; and that he con. and rain which deluged the ship, there where she was known as Molly McCauly. tinued to decline progressively ever since, can be no doubt but that she would have She lived to advanced age, much respect notwithstanding medical treatment. I been on fire from the truck to the water, ed by all, and was buried with military Spiride of Catherine A. Rodgers. of Mrs. Rodgers by suicide. Since then county, Kansas, leaped from the Saloon tive ever tried with hot air as a motor in farm. Late last fall he moved from Vir- came to a very sudden death, breaking or has never been altered in any material Engineer John F. Haskins, in charge ginia to this county. He has two or three dislocating her neck. She was supposed point from its original design. It has no of cars containing one hundred and fifty their mother committed the dreadful deed. young,) had crossed the Mississippi river ward end. Its weight, in running order. travelers, thus skillfully and bravely. He At noon they came home from school and with his family-wife and four children is forty-one tons, and fuel enough for a was running rapidly upon an embank- not being able to find their mother began -and went back to the opposite side for trip of 300 miles weighs only about three sons increases with their years. Every ment, a flange flew off from one of the to cry, Mr. Rodgers coming in a few remaining luggage, but not returning and tons more, and is carried in its capacious medical practitioner is well aware of the forward truck wheels. The divergence minutes afterwards found Mrs. Rodgers Mrs. Wilbur having heard that her hus- furnace as a single charge. The working fact, and parents are generally advised of the head of the machine from the line up stairs hanging by the neck, and quite band was killed, started for home with out of the principle has been most skilnot to allow their infants to sleep with of the track caught the engineer's eye, dead. It is the impression that soon af their trunks and children. She was fully executed .- N. Y. Tribung, and told him that the engine must go ter breakfast when Mr. R. had gone to closely watched by a gentleman en route down the bank. At the same instant he his work, and the children had gone to to Chicago, to prevent her from jumping felt the train press upon the tender and School that Mrs. R. went up stairs and from the car windows, but was left by raised a fawn which he named "Minnie." The happy man was born in the city of engine, and knew the couplings were cutting a piece of rope from the bed cord, that person when she took the Michigan It was raised in company with a lamb and Regeneration, in the parish of Repent. slack. This sensation suggested to his got upon a chair and fastened the rope Southern cars. ance, unto life. He was educated at the experienced mind as quick as lightning. around one of the rafters, and then around A Coroner's inquest was held upon her tached. One day the fawn was missed, school of Obedience, and lives now in the salvation of the passenger cars by her neck, and then stepped off the chair, body, at the house of Mr. Shuffer, near and the greatest uneasiness was manifestthe town of Perseverance. He works at the breaking of the first coupling next knocking it over. Some neighbor's child- the depot, Tuesday afternoon. Verdict ed by its companions. On search being he trade of Diligence, notwithstanding the tender by a sudden and powerful jerk. ren on their way to school that morning - Came to her death by leaping from the made, they found the body of the fawn, he has a large estate in the country of He twitched open the throttle valve to its saw Mrs. Rodgers sitting in the door car window when the cars were in rapid which some wretch had shot. The lamb Christian Contentment, and many times full width, and gave the pistons suddenly reading the bible. The only plausible motion, in a partial state of derange- licked its face with every sign of the killed, laid at the bottom. Dignified as been greatly depressed and was laboring FORT WAYNE & CHICAGO RAILROAD .-heroic, the faithful engineer refused a under the impression that she had com- We are much gratified to learn that an arlarge present of money from the passen- mitted a great sin in going to the com- rangement is about being made which munion table at all, considering herself will secure the early completion of the altogether unworthy. This impression Chicago Railroad. It is proposed to congrew upon her day by day until she was solidate the Ohio & Penn., the Ohio & his will, due order in his affections, sound horse which has recently been captured She left a note lying on the table, which name of the Pittsburgh & Chicago Rail-

CATHERINE A. RODGERS.

its appearance in Broadway, New York. him time and again, often running him and as a description of it may prove of from sun to sun, and occasionly hunting interest to our lady readers, we give one we find in the Home Journal. That pa- sent embarrassments, would be of equal end of it to a rafter, in the scond story of

A promenade over-dress-being a close galloping. Once he was decoyed by worn by gentlemen-only not so long .means of other horses into a corral, but. It is all the rage at present in Paris, and on perceiving the snare, he at once bounded pearl drab cachemire or pelisse cloth are clear by sevaral feet the bristing post of the goods preferred. The cut is double the coral. A reward of $1500 was once breasted, with four pearl or passemediteric offered for him, and he was after several buttons on each side as the lapels, and attempts, driven into a narrow pass and two buttons at the waist behind, at the lassoed, but he snapped the lasso in an juncture of the box plaits and side seams. The sleeves are cut in a sagoda style --The last organized attempt to secure him, that is, with a very little fullness at the however, succeeded, and the noble animal arm hole, and formed to fit the arm nearly was robbed of the freedom he had so long to the elbow, from whence they widen so his way to heaven, but he walks through and so gallantly contended for. A party as to come very large and floating at the it as fast as he can; and all his business of thirty persons, well mounted, assem- wrist, where they are turned over to bled at the place where he was known to form a double cuff of three inches depth. be grazing, which was along a range of For a waist sixteen inches in length, the hills on the West bank of the Sacramen- skirts should be about eighteen inches to. A few of them, in the morning, lyng, and cut in a regular circle, to sew drove him to the mountains, when he without fullness to the bodice and still was compelled to run back upon the fall gracefully over a hooped skirt of plains, where the rest of the party, scat- moderate amplitude. The linings are of tered in squads for the distance of thirty silk serge, to match, and the edges are miles along the country, dashed at him bound with fine galloon. There are two by turns and thus ran him at his full diagonal pockets in theskirts. This garspeed back and forth to the mountains, ment should be cut and made by a tailor Cor Cobbett's Opinion of Women .-- and up and down the plains, until he who possesses some knowledge of the WHEAT At the highest market prices, A colored clergyman in Allany, re- taken on subscription to the Banner, cently gave notic as follows from the pul- Though men may fall in love with girls was completly jaded and worn, and at ornamental art, when it becomes the most attractive and comfortable garment July, 1855. pit: 'There will be a four day's meeting at play, there is nothing to make them dark they were enabled to lasso and cap- most attractive and comfortable garment getting wet he would drown himself!pit: There will be a four day's meeting at play, the later by trade, was ever adopted by He will probably compromise matters by lately sold in Adams county, Miss., for every evening this week, except Wednes- stand to their love like seeing them at out a moment's breathing time. At the Dreadful Railroad Accident-Two Men Killed! Last Saturday afternoon two Irish laknew the ground well, that he traveled on Mr. Rose's farm, two miles west of horse, with a darkish mane and tail, Railroad track by the engineer of the loses much of its humor, because we can-

Owing to the violent wrnd that prevailed company it: at the time, and which blew the smoke DEATH OF A SON OF MOLLY PITCHER. back upon the engineer and obstructed was consequently 85 years, of age. He He did not discover his mistake until was the son of the celebrated Molly it was too late. The poor fellows at Pitcher, who distinguished herself at the tempted to run, but in doing so one of battle of Monmouth, and of whom Head- them fell through about 30 feet on the instantly killed. The other one, it would It was during this part of battle, (when seem, attempted to climb down, but in in this city are thus prematurely cut off. powder or torpedoes. Owing to the ice. Gen. Lee was struggling nobly against the attempt was caught by the locomo-Parents should know this important fact, sleet and snow, with which the decks, the overwhelming numbers that pressed tive and his left hand and leg between and at once correct the evil, if unhappi- rigging's and sails were covered, the fire on him,) that an Irishman, with serving the knee and ankle were mashed to a jelly it exists in' their families. Says Dr. was extinguished. About ten minutes his gun, was shot down. His wife, ly, and he fell upon a large rock which James Copeland: A not uncommon cause afterwards a second ball struck near the named Molly, only twenty-two years of broke his skull and killed him instantly. spake unto him thus, says 1, "louing man the lambder of this is not the way to salvation." And of depressed vital power is the young same place, but was driven by the force age, employed herself, while he loaded Their names were White and Sullivan. - says he "Old hoss, if you had been salisleeping with the aged. This fact, how. of the wind just clear of the ship's side and fired his piece, in bringing water In the forenoon they had come down from ever explained, has been long remarked to leeward, when it exploded with a loud from a spring near by. While returning Lagro and took dinner at Mr. Collins', with a supply she saw him fall, and who keeps a boarding house for Messrs.

Wabash Gazette.

Painful Tragedy - Mysterious Affair. We learned from Mr. Lester, and oth- or its operation. The machine it will be We briefly noticed last week the death who recently left Ontario, Lagrange NETT, and is, we think, the first locomowe have learned some additional particu- Car window, three quarters of a mile any form. It is, taken together, a very lars. Mr. Rodgers, the husband of Mrs. west of Sturgis, as the cars were coming remarkable construction. It has cost, up Rodgers, resided on the Asher McCowan east, last Monday night, at 9 o'clock, and to the present time, about $40,000, but

Lagrange Herald.

road, and to have the whole put in comonce be accepted by the other companies | deed .- Wab. Gazette. A new article of ladies' dress has made Such an arrangement would add much to the wealth and business of the Ohio & Suicipe .-- A Mrs. Heath, of Milton Penn. and Penn. Central Railroads, and township, Jefferson county, in this State, be relieving the Ohio & Indiana and Ft. a few weeks since, deliberately took a Wayne & Chicago Railroads of their pre- rope, got upon a chair and fastened one advantage to them. The entire line would her house, adjusted the other end to her be one of the best in the west; and we neck, and then kicked the chair from unfirmly believe that when once finished der her. Her son, coming in a few minand fully established, the Fort Wayne & utes afterward, cut the rope before life Chicago will be found the most profitable became extinct. She lived three or four portion, of the line. If the Pennsylva- days, when she died. She was much renians are alive to their interests they will spected. Domestic troubles, it is said, at once complete the arrangements, and drove her to the desperate act. Her husthereby secure the immense addition to band committed suicide by hanging himtheir business, that otherwise they would self with a chair, in a stable, on the be in some danger of losing.

> Ft. Wayne Sentinel. CHARITY AT HOME .-- The following piece of common sense we clip from a

Let some of our public spirited men, was brought to a sudden and very painful instead of sending out our Bibles to Tim- termination by the death of John Dougherbucto, and flannel breeches to Hottentots, ty, Esq., a young man twenty-two years bestow some portion of their attention on of age, the Corresponding Secretary to the the thousands of able bodied agricultur- Association. He sat near the orator of ists who arrive on our shores every year, the day, and was observed to fell back in and, by forwarding them to locations his seat, as though in a fit, He was imwhere they are wanted, not only to ben | mediately removed from the room, and

The young man who was crossed in ball was to have succeeded the benquet. love last week, says if it were not for shooting at himself in a looking glass! | three thousand seven hundred dellars.

more accessible to all.

A RICH SERMON .-- Where is the man with a harp of a thousand strings? The following rich extract from a sermon will be recognized at a glance by some of our readers here at home. It not put in print the peculiar sing-song style and appropriate gestures which ac-

My friends, sin makes the purtiest young man and ooman look ugly-ah .--And I'll tell you how I know-ah. As I was coming to church to day, I saw some young men on the road-ah. And I thought one of them was the purtiest young man I ever saw in my life-ah. And as I drew nigh unto them I discovered that they were playing of marvles, and they drew nigh unto a place what they called the taw, and they marvled ah. And this purty young man was the last one to marvle-ah. And when he marvled, he jumped up and flapped his hands, like a rooster does his winge, and says he, "I wish I may de d-d if I han't fat-ah." And O, my friends, then I thought that was the ugliest young man I ever saw in my life-ah. And I opened my mouth and spake unto him thus, says I, "Young man vated as bad as I have, you wouldn't want to hear talk of salivation." And now, my friends, when that are young man said he was fat he told a tarnal lie-ah, for he was as lean as that hungry looking sister over there that's always praying so piously when the hat is bein' passed round-ah. there was a slow and remarkable decline an immense exhibation from the Gulf. Greene, who had been struck with her from his stone quarry. They were sup-And, my friends, if that young man

New Madrid Times.

Rapid Experimenting.

The hot-air locomotive, "Vampire," unexperimental trial trip on Friday, while running at a rate judged to have been about eighty miles per hour! Fortunately no harm resulted either to the machine ers employed at the Sturges Depot, yes recollected, is impelled by heated air, or terday morning, upon our return from rather by both heated air and steam, in a Adrian, that the wife of Mr. A. Wilbur, manner invented by Mr. PHINEAS BEN-

> AFFECTION IN ANIMALS .- Mr. Quinn two dogs, and the four were much at-> deepest frief. On returning to bury it, they found the two dogs and the lamb, which were even then engaged in their task of love. From that time the lamb took no nourishment, and finally died of a broken heart. San Francisco Sun.

Blown Down. Last Saturday afternoon, during the high winds which prevailed, the brick The Sacramento (Cal.) Journal gives finally driven to the horrible act which Indiana and the Ft. Wayne & Chicago which were burned last winter were blown an interesting account of a noted wild ended her life and her troubles together. Railroads into one company under the down. The west wall fell upon the roof of Dr. Fords' frame building occupied by James Wallace Esq., and broke in the Yolo, and is considered the best native for sister Jane, and keep the children to- day. We have not heard the conditions before the walls fell Mr. I. Wamsley with to be made, but hope the Pennsylvania building, and had barely got out of reach Company is prepared to offer such fair, when they came down with a terrible liberal, and equitable terms, as will at crash, Mr. W. had a narrow escape insame farm, about nine months ago.

Vevay News. Painful Termination to a Banquet .-The banquet of the "Young Friends of Ireland," which took place at the Apollo Rooms, New York, last Friday evening. efit the laborer, but the community, by the programme was proceeded with; but rendering the price of market produce in a short time intelligence was received of Mr. Dougherty's death, and the compapy retired silently to their homes. A

A slave, a carpenter by trade, was